Why sponsor CNG Forum

CNG Forum is where the builders are. The community attracts the engineers, researchers, and practitioners who are actually doing the work to maximize the potential of geospatial data, from enterprises, startups, academia, and government agencies. CNG 2026 participants include organizations like Google, AWS, Esri, NASA, UC Berkeley, Yale, Clark University, Earthmover, Taylor Geospatial, Wherobots, Humanitarian OpenStreetMap, Allen Institute for AI, and Land Information New Zealand, all participating because this is where the next generation of geospatial technology is taking shape: STAC, GeoParquet, COGs, Zarr, and the AI workflows being built on top of them.

Sponsoring CNG 2026 puts your organization in front of this audience for three days of concentrated community engagement, in a setting that encourages real conversation, collaboration, and new partnerships.
